An Inspector Calls

By J.B. Priestley

A Dramatic Work for Our Time

A police inspector arrives for a routine inquiry of an eminently respectable British family regarding the suicide of a young woman earlier that day. The seemingly close-knit family is shown up as selfish, self-centered, and cowardly. The surprising revelation, however, is in the inspector, a mysterious individual with uncanny full knowledge of everyone's connection with the suicide.

But you will have to read the play for the surprise ending.

Directed by Stephen Winegard and Stan Milesky

Seeking 3 Female Actors, 4 Male actors

Character 1 - Arthur Brimley: Father, middle-aged male, self-righteous, pretentious, successful, and self-described hard-headed business man.

Character 2 - Sybil Brimley: Mother, middle aged female, cold, snobbish, self-righteous, pompous, and her husband's social superior.

Character 3 - Sheila Birling: Daughter, early-twenties, pretty, pleased with life, excited by her just announced engagement, and more sympathetic than her parents about the living conditions of the working class and poor.

Character 4 - Eric Birling: Son (and Sheila's older brother), mid-late twenties, uncertain, half-shy, half-assertive, and unknown to his parents, dissolute and reckless.

Character 5 - Gerald Croft: Sheila's Fiancée, late 20's, man of business, and well-bred young man-about-town.

Character 6 - Inspector Goole: mid-50's intent, scrupulous, no-nonsense, focused, methodical, and intent upon discovering why a young woman committed suicide.

Character 7 - Edna: Maid. Neatly dressed parlor maid, appropriately and professionally dressed.

Tech and crew positions are also being requested.

Performances will be held on November 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th, 2021
